DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 11-19, 20 & 25, drawn to a surgical system, classified in class 606, subclass 104.
- II. Claims 1-6, 21, 22 and 27-31, drawn to a clip, classified in class 606, subclass 75.
- III. Claims 7-10, 23, 24 & 26, drawn to a method of insertion, classified in class 606, subclass 99.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not require a dome depression or biocompatible material, as required by the subcombination. The subcombination has separate utility such as wood staple for building purposes to hold insulation in place or as a tissue staple to close wounds during surgery.

Inventions I, II & III are related as product (I & II) and process of use (III). The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product can be used in a materially different process, which does not require insertion into bone where the device may be used separately or together to accomplish a variety of task within the construction art of building with wood, where the tool may be used as a gripping tool for any device with a small opening and the clip may be used a wood staple for building purposes and the system may be used to deform and clip thin pieces of sheet metal together for the construction of an artistic endeavor or within the art of surgery for the closing of an incision or wound. Furthermore, the devices may be used with a materially different process that does not require pre-drilling of the bone tissue, where the staple is hammered into place.

Art Unit: 3738

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Should invention II be elected (the clip), the following election of species is required:

A. Clip

- a. Figure 1
- B. Clip with gripping surfaces
  - a. Figure 2
- C. Clip with offset bridge
  - a. Figure 4a & 4b
- D. Elastic Clip
  - a. Figures 9 & 8a-c

Should invention I be elected (the system), the following election of species is required:

- E. Fixation tool
  - a. Figure 5a-i
- F. Fixation tool with ratchet
  - a. Figure 6
- G. Fixation tool with bolt
  - a. Figure 7

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Robert W. Amareld, Jr. whose telephone number is 571-272-6170. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9am -5pm EST.
